

Juan Felipe Bustamante Crespo

PARTNER

Juan Felipe is a prominent Ecuadorian lawyer, currently a partner at Bustamante Fabara. Specializing in Corporate and M&A areas, his work is characterized by a meticulous and deep analysis applied to each and every case.

As an active member of the International Bar Association, he participates in multiple annual conferences worldwide. He is also the President of the Ecuadorian Portuguese Chamber of Commerce and represents Bustamante & Bustamante as a member of the Legal Alliance of the Americas, where he has had the opportunity to interact with the most influential representatives in the Legal field.

Recognitions

- Chambers & Partners Corporate & Commercial: Up and Coming

Up-and-coming partner Juan Felipe Bustamante “has always been attentive to our requirements and enquiries,” according to a client. An impressed observer remarks: “He is fast, efficient and always focused on providing simple, clear and effective solutions.”

Professional Experience

Juan Felipe possesses profound knowledge in both the financial and legal realms, enabling him to view situations from different perspectives and provide comprehensive solutions to his clients. He co-directs the Corporate department at Bustamante Fabara, where he advises some of the most important clients conducting business in Ecuador. His primary areas of expertise include Hospitality, Project Financing, M&A, Aeronautics, and New Technologies, focused on Foreign Investment, where he has successfully introduced several new markets to Ecuador. He has experience in guiding and assessing ventures in complex legal matters and represents numerous companies in the country.

Education

- Universidad de las Américas (Bachelor of Laws)
- Franklin University in Switzerland (Bachelor’s degree in Economics and Management).

Languages

- Spanish
- English

Contact

- Email: juanfelipe@bustamantefabara.com
- Tel: +593 2 2562680