

Emilia Terán

ASSOCIATE

I am a highly qualified lawyer, with experience in the areas of notarial, administrative, constitutional and civil law, including a background in constitutional actions. My behavior is oriented to adapt to the several needs that a case could go through, counting with the ability to solve the difficulties that arises during the legal processes.

My skills include discipline and commitment to achieve the best outcomes, while I focus on proactivity and leadership to improve teamwork, complemented with the ability to communicate effectively to organize every step of cases development for case resolution. My abilities at work include appropriate draft of legal documents, mediation, thorough preparation and suitable resolution of legal issues.

I am willing to bring my expertise in corporative law to Bustamante Fabara, contributing with the company goals and refining my skills with an ethical and excellent practice.
