

Carolina Echeverría

SENIOR ASSOCIATE

Carolina has over eight years of experience in corporate law, providing strategic counsel to both national and international businesses across a wide range of corporate and commercial matters. With extensive expertise in the FinTech industry and the payments ecosystem, she specializes in delivering innovative legal solutions to businesses at the forefront of digital financial services. Drawing on her in-depth knowledge of regulatory frameworks and emerging technologies, Carolina advises both startups and established companies navigating the complexities of payment systems and financial technology innovation.

Carolina excels in guiding clients on multi-jurisdictional compliance, cross-border payment solutions, and the legal aspects of digital transactions, ensuring alignment with both local and international legal standards.

Currently, Carolina is a member of the Fintech and Corporate team at Bustamante Fabara, where she offers comprehensive legal support to companies across diverse industries. Her practice includes negotiating and drafting commercial contracts, advising on mergers and acquisitions (M&A), facilitating corporate restructurings, and providing guidance on corporate governance to optimize growth and sustainability.
