

Eduardo Marcelo Diaz Maignashca ASSOCIATE

Eduardo Díaz Maignashca is an Associate at BUSTAMANTE FABARA, with more than seven years of experience advising domestic and international companies on corporate, regulatory, and digital law matters. His practice focuses on corporate structuring, commercial contracting, regulatory compliance, and legal risk management, particularly in highly regulated sectors such as energy, technology, advertising, telecommunications, and agribusiness.

He also advises clients on data protection, privacy, cybersecurity, and information security, particularly in connection with legal and regulatory issues arising from the use of technology, digital platforms, and personal data processing. His profile combines a strong corporate background with a focused interest in innovation and emerging technologies, enabling him to deliver practical and business-oriented legal advice in increasingly complex regulatory environments.
