

María Fernanda Saá-Jaramillo Márquez de la Plata

DIRECTOR

María Fernanda is a lawyer specializing in international taxation. She provides advice to both national and international clients, covering domestic taxation as well as international tax matters. In the latter, she focuses particularly on the application of Double Taxation Avoidance Agreements and the Prevention of Fiscal Evasion in relation to Income Tax, as well as transfer pricing. She is a member of the International Fiscal Association (IFA) and the Ecuadorian Institute of Tax Law (IEDT).

María Fernanda also has experience in economic competition and other regulated sectors, which enables her to integrate her business advisory services in the areas of corporate compliance, mergers, foreign trade operations, and investment contracts, both for local companies and globalized entities across various sectors of the economy.

Experiencia Profesional

- Director, BUSTAMANTE FABARA 2021 / Present
- Senior Associate, BUSTAMANTE & BUSTAMANTE 2002 / 2021
- Legal Advisor to the Deputy Secretary of Foreign Trade, MICIP 2001 / 2002
- Consultant and Negotiator (World Bank – FTAA Competition Policy); 2000 / 2001
Member of the Technical Group for the “Competition Law” Project
- Coordinator, International Taxation Department, National Directorate 1998 / 2001
of the SRI, official at the SRI National Directorate in the areas of Legal Representation, Tax Legal Consultations, and Administrative Review Appeals

Education

- Doctor of Jurisprudence and Lawyer of the Courts of the Republic, Pontificia Universidad Católica del Ecuador (PUCE), 2006
- LLM in European Economic Law and International Taxation, KU Leuven, Belgium, 1992-1994
- Bachelor of Legal Sciences, Pontificia Universidad Católica del Ecuador (PUCE), 1984-1990

Languages

- Spanish
- English

Contact

- Email: mafersaa@bustamantefabara.com
- Tel: +593 2 2562680